Backstory

Brendon is a smart kid, under 16, who is remarkably lazy.

He enjoys playing online videogames and to go out with his friends.

On the opposite, Brendon hates to do his chores, specially the ones who he thinks could be done remotely.

As a technology enthusiast, he hopes he can find a way to stop interrupting his games to do basic chores through his phone.

Brendon hopes one day his parents can get a smart home, so he can do exactly that.
